

MC LAUGHLIN AND YORK CONFERENCE.

KINGS COUNTY LOYALTY TO HILL TEMPERED FOR THE PRESENT BY FEAR OF THE TAMMANY AXE.

Police Commissioner Bernard J. York, who was supposed to have become lukewarm toward High McLaughlin, held a long conference in the auction-room in Willoughby-st., Brooklyn, yesterday with the Kings County Democratic boss. The talk was of so important a nature that James J. Shevin and Senator John McCarty stood by the door to keep outsiders far enough away so that they could not catch a stray word. After the conference McCarty and York went away together, presumably to visit Richard Croker. It was learned after that meeting that a chairman of the Executive Committee will be elected as soon as the revised constitution is adopted. The turn-down of Senator P. H. McCarron, the man whom Mr. Croker dislikes, for this chairmanship, is said to have been convinced at by McCarron himself as a sort of a "gold brick" for the Tammany boss.

While the Kings County organization is loyal to David B. Hill, it is, for the present, compelled to make a show of loyalty to Tammany Hall, because too many Brooklyn office-holders are at the mercy of Mr. Croker. McCarron was perfectly willing to lend himself to a scheme to turn the tide in his favor, but Mr. Croker, because that would put him off his guard for the work that is to be made this fall to humble the Tammany leader before the election.
